CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by our Correspondents.

THE CORINTHIAN SAILING CLINICS RACE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "DAILY PRESS."

DEAR Sir.—"Spectator" in your today's issue quotes Art. 20. of the sailing rules, but he would have some nearer the mark had he quoted Art. 21., which reads—"A yacht may luff as she pleases to prevent an other yacht passing to windward, but must not do so as to impede him or his mate in the latter's passing to leeward." This was the exact position of the two boats last Sunday, Lydard coming with the intention of going to leeward of the Cass, and when the stern of the former was abreast the lee quarter of the latter, Cass's helm was put up, and bat a third hand, would have "rumped" the Lydard.

These are the facts, notwithstanding what has previously been stated. Yours faithfully,

SKIPPER OF THE "LA "YBIRD."

Hongkong, 13th March, 1893.

CALE LYMPH.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "DAILY PRESS."

Sir—The second page of your paper which appeared in Hongkong on the 14th instant contains the above heading signed "E." Your correspondent states that the Vaccin Farm has failed to supply an active calf lymph. As the agents for the distribution of this lymph, we beg to say that this statement is absolutely untrue. The opinion of the medical profession is that the active calf lymph is not required at all, and that it is a public enemy and an absolute evil in itself.

It has been favourably reported upon from Japan, and repeat orders have been sent to us from there and from the coast ports and we have supplied it.

The only matter for regret is that the supply from the Vaccin Farm has been sent to the demand. We are sorry, ours oblige.

CANTON NOTES.

[FROM NATIVE PAPERS.]

Intelligence has been received from Nan-

king-hoo, which is situated in the Northeast of Kwangtung, to the effect that on the 27th ultimo a slight earthquake occurred at Kien-shan. On the 28th another quake took place of a more violent character.

During the early part of the day the sun shone brightly, but about three o'clock the weather suddenly changed, the houses were distinctly felt rocking about, and the inmates at once rushed from them into the streets. Fortunately the disturbance ended in a few seconds and my intelligence was received from the Emperor for them.

Chou Lin-tseu, the Governor of Kwangtung, arrived at Canton on the 10th instant. He stayed in his official boat and did not land. On the 13th instant he went on board a Chinese gunboat, the Kiong-tak, from which he will shortly embark on a steamer for his destination (Peking). The Exiled General the Viceroy Li and General Hoang have paid additional visits to him, and asked him to show their best compliment to the Emperor for them.

Li Ki-hau, the officer in charge of the East

Gts district, has received instructions from the Treasurer to the effect that it is the Treasurer's intention to transfer him to Ting-Lo Hsien,

King Chow, where he is to be appointed Magistrate. It is said that Mr. Li dislikes this appointment.

In order to prevent the people from watching him returning to his names and from presenting him with positions at the doo

n. Nanchang Magistrate has issued a proclai ming to the public declaring that his appointment

will be valid every month, namely, the 3rd,

13th, 23rd, etc., every month, namely, the 3rd,
